Consent to exemption from the duty of secrecy in the case of an unaccompanied minor asylum seeker

This form must be filled in and signed by both you who are an unaccompanied minor and by your representative.

You can read more about duty of secrecy in The Norwegian Public Administration Act section 13a (1).

What does it mean to give an exemption from the duty of secrecy?

The Directorate of Immigration (UDI) is bound by a duty of secrecy. We can neither comment on nor disclose information about your case to others without your consent.

If you wish to give a journalist access to information regarding your case, you and your representative/guardian must

- complete this form and email it to samtykke-presse@udi.no
- attach a copy of a valid identity document (for example your passport). If you do not have a valid identity document, you can attach a copy of your card for asylum seeker.

Your consent is valid for one month, but you or your representative can withdraw it at any time by contacting the communications department on +47 23 35 17 00 or by sending an email to samtykke-presse@udi.no.

You and your representative are responsible for ensuring that those who receive information about your case handle it according to your wishes.

Your representative has a duty of confidentiality

The person who is a representative/guardian for you who are an unaccompanied minor asylum seeker has a duty of confidentiality. This means that you must give your consent to the exemption from the duty of secrecy for your representative/guardian. You can read more about this in the vergemålsloven § 46.
